2022-2023 School Accountability Report Card (Published During the 2023-2024 School Year)

General Information about the School Accountability Report Card (SARC)

SARC Overview

By February 1 of each year, every school in California is required by state law to publish a School Accountability Report Card (SARC). The SARC contains information about the condition and performance of each California public school. Under the Local Control Funding Formula (LCFF) all local educational agencies (LEAs) are required to prepare a Local Control and Accountability Plan (LCAP), which describes how they intend to meet annual school-specific goals for all pupils, with specific activities to address state and local priorities. Additionally, data reported in an LCAP is to be consistent with data reported in the SARC.

- For more information about SARC requirements and access to prior year reports, see the California Department of Education (CDE) SARC web page at <https://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/ac/sa/>.
- For more information about the LCFF or the LCAP, see the CDE LCFF web page at <https://www.cde.ca.gov/fg/aa/lc/>.
- For additional information about the school, parents/guardians and community members should contact the school principal or the district office.

DataQuest

DataQuest is an online data tool located on the CDE DataQuest web page at <https://dq.cde.ca.gov/dataquest/> that contains additional information about this school and comparisons of the school to the district and the county. Specifically, DataQuest is a dynamic system that provides reports for accountability (e.g., test data, enrollment, high school graduates, dropouts, course enrollments, staffing, and data regarding English learners).

California School Dashboard

The California School Dashboard (Dashboard) <https://www.caschooldashboard.org/> reflects California's new accountability and continuous improvement system and provides information about how LEAs and schools are meeting the needs of California's diverse student population. The Dashboard contains reports that display the performance of LEAs, schools, and student groups on a set of state and local measures to assist in identifying strengths, challenges, and areas in need of improvement.

Internet Access

Internet access is available at public libraries and other locations that are publicly accessible (e.g., the California State Library). Access to the Internet at libraries and public locations is generally provided on a first-come, first-served basis. Other use restrictions may include the hours of operation, the length of time that a workstation may be used (depending on availability), the types of software programs available on a workstation, and the ability to print documents.

2023-24 Quality, Currency, Availability of Textbooks and Other Instructional Materials

The Escondido Union High School District places a strong emphasis on ensuring that there are ample and up-to-date textbooks and materials to support instructional programs. Following a Public Hearing on September 12, 2023, the district confirmed that each school within its jurisdiction possesses satisfactory and high-quality textbooks, instructional materials, and science lab equipment as mandated by the settlement of Williams vs. the State of California.

Every student, including English Learners, receives their individual standards-aligned textbooks and/or instructional materials for core subjects, as well as visual and performing arts. These resources are intended for both classroom use and for students to take home. The district adopts textbooks and supplementary materials based on a review cycle, with committees consisting of teachers, administrators, and parents evaluating the materials. The Instructional Program Review Committee then makes recommendations to the School Board. Before adoption, all proposed materials are made available for parents to examine at the district office. Additionally, schools incorporate various novels and instructional materials into their curriculum.

The table contains information collected in September 2023 regarding the quality, currency, and availability of standards-aligned textbooks and instructional materials used at the school..

B. Pupil Outcomes

State Priority: Pupil Achievement

The SARC provides the following information relevant to the State priority: Pupil Achievement (Priority 4):

Statewide Assessments

(i.e., California Assessment of Student Performance and Progress [CAASPP] System includes the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessments for students in the general education population and the California Alternate Assessments [CAAs] for English language arts/literacy [ELA] and mathematics given in grades three through eight and grade eleven. Only eligible students may participate in the administration of the CAAs. CAAs items are aligned with alternate achievement standards, which are linked with the Common Core State Standards [CCSS] for students with the most significant cognitive disabilities).

The CAASPP System encompasses the following assessments and student participation requirements:

1. Smarter Balanced Summative Assessments and CAAs for ELA in grades three through eight and grade eleven.
2. Smarter Balanced Summative Assessments and CAAs for mathematics in grades three through eight and grade eleven.
3. California Science Test (CAST) and CAAs for Science in grades five, eight, and once in high school (i.e., grade ten, eleven, or twelve).

College and Career Ready

The percentage of students who have successfully completed courses that satisfy the requirements for entrance to the University of California and the California State University, or career technical education sequences or programs of study.

Percentage of Students Meeting or Exceeding the State Standard on CAASPP

This table displays CAASPP test results in ELA and mathematics for all students grades three through eight and grade eleven taking and completing a state-administered assessment.

Percentages are not calculated when the number of students tested is ten or less, either because the number of students in this category is too small for statistical accuracy or to protect student privacy.

ELA and mathematics test results include the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessment and the CAA. The “Percent Met or Exceeded” is calculated by taking the total number of students who met or exceeded the standard on the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessment plus the total number of students who met the standard (i.e., achieved Level 3-Alternate) on the CAAs divided by the total number of students who participated in both assessments.

Subject	School 2021-22	School 2022-23	District 2021-22	District 2022-23	State 2021-22	State 2022-23

2022-23 CAASPP Test Results in ELA by Student Group

This table displays CAASPP test results in ELA by student group for students grades three through eight and grade eleven taking and completing a state-administered assessment.

ELA test results include the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessment and the CAA. The “Percent Met or Exceeded” is calculated by taking the total number of students who met or exceeded the standard on the Smarter Balanced Summative Assessment plus the total number of students who met the standard (i.e., achieved Level 3-Alternate) on the CAAs divided by the total number of students who participated in both assessments.

Double dashes (--) appear in the table when the number of students is ten or less, either because the number of students in this category is too small for statistical accuracy or to protect student privacy.

The number of students tested includes all students who participated in the test whether they received a score or not; however, the number of students tested is not the number that was used to calculate the achievement level percentages. The achievement level percentages are calculated using only students who received scores.

2022-23 Career Technical Education Programs

Career Technical Education Programs

In alignment with California Department of Education, Escondido Union High School District defines career paths as a program of study that involves a multiyear sequence of courses that integrates core academic knowledge with technical and occupational knowledge to provide students with a pathway to postsecondary education and careers. The CTE department collects data on the number of students moving through our local sequences. Some CTE courses, because of the time requirements, internship element and industry standards they meet, may be defined as a sequence within themselves. CTE courses are found throughout our schools. A CTE concentrator is identified locally and is a student who has completed 50 percent of a planned program sequence (in hours or credits) in a state-recognized CTE sequence and is enrolled in the next course in that sequence or has completed 50 percent of a single state-recognized multi-hour course and is enrolled in the second half of that course. Capstone courses are defined as completer based on length of course, sequence, and skill development. The CTE capstone course leads to a certificate/industry skill sheet or license if applicable. The program also provides the student with academic and technical knowledge and skill through integrated academic and technical instruction. The programs prepare students to enter current or emerging careers for further training within the career path for which there is gainful employment. All students are provided practical experiences to pursue post high school employment and gain course work that is A-G compliant.

OGHS offers the following CTE pathways and courses:

Digital Photo-Advanced Digital Imaging
Visual Communications
Advanced Visual Communications
Video, Advanced Video
Multimedia Communication
Advanced Multimedia Communication
Culinary Arts & Food Science-Advanced Culinary Arts & Restaurant Management
Culinary Arts & Food Science-International Cuisine
Culinary Arts & Food Science-Advanced Baking
Print and Graphic-Page Layout and Design
Print and Graphic-Screen Print
Auto Technology 1-Auto Technology 2

Students who engage in the pathways find relevance in their studies, are provided an opportunity to apply their academic and industry skills to everyday problems, are taught to think critically, and are required to act professionally. Through the IEP process, special education students may be scheduled into CTE courses. Students are provided the support and necessary curriculum modification as outlined in the IEP. CTE provides extended testing time, extra assignment time and support where appropriate. Since our CTE courses work to integrate and support the academic standards, the students will be exposed to “hands on” activities and participate in solving real life problems. The capacity to serve a “significant” number of students and the degree to which the program attains specific outcomes are assessed yearly. Completion rates, graduation rates, and completion of a sequence are all evaluated yearly. The number of completion certificates issued, and the attainment of specific industry skills is analyzed. Data on attendance is also collected.

State Priority: Parental Involvement

The SARC provides the following information relevant to the State priority: Parental Involvement (Priority 3): Efforts the school district makes to seek parent input in making decisions regarding the school district and at each school site.

2023-24 Opportunities for Parental Involvement

Orange Glen High School takes pride in fostering strong connections with parents through various school and community-based organizations. The school's Parent Education Program and English Language Advisory Committee (ELAC) organize multiple parent education series each semester, typically totaling 16 sessions annually, drawing attendance from 10 to 100 parents. This program offers classes, specialized assistance, and a platform for parents to engage with school staff.

Several booster organizations, including music boosters and athletic boosters, actively contribute support to school programs. The family liaison plays a crucial role in connecting parents to school resources, coordinating weekly events for both English and Spanish-speaking families, and providing interpretation during School Site Council meetings to facilitate the participation of Spanish-speaking parents in their native language. The OGHS Family Engagement Center serves as a collaborative space for parents to work together, access technology for checking students' grades and attendance, and attend workshops.

In addition, the school's social workers are available to assist parents in finding local resources such as healthcare, mental health care, affordable housing, and legal assistance that might be challenging to access independently. This commitment to family and community involvement is a vital element of Orange Glen High School's intervention and student support strategies.

2023-24 School Safety Plan

The district prioritizes school safety by employing school resource officers from the Escondido Police Department and six full-time campus supervision assistants. Administrators and staff actively contribute to supervising school grounds, providing security, and overseeing all school events. The campus is maintained as a closed environment, and all visitors are required to register with the office. The school collaborates with local police and fire departments to review and modify its safety plan, conducting staff training regularly. The safety plan undergoes an annual review.

Orange Glen High School's Safety plan, last reviewed in November 2022, includes an emergency plan addressing various situations. Staff members are equipped with disaster plan books and receive training in its implementation. The entire school practices evacuation procedures annually with local and regional emergency response agencies. Fire drills are also conducted throughout the year.

Parents are advised that, in serious emergencies, students may be safer at school than at home due to earthquake-safe buildings, on-site firefighting equipment, and comprehensive emergency procedures. The safety and welfare of students are prioritized during emergencies. Students are expected to follow the directions of teachers, staff, or bus drivers if en route. Parents are requested not to telephone the school during emergencies to keep lines available for responders, avoid driving to school to allow open streets for emergency vehicles, and tune in to designated radio stations for information. The family reunion area is designated at the Orange Glen High School Stadium. The school encourages families to create home emergency plans in alignment with the Escondido Union High School District Disaster Preparedness Plan.

Fiscal Year 2022-23 Types of Services Funded

Orange Glen High School provides a diverse range of courses and programs to enhance students' learning experiences. These include Honors and Advanced Placement classes, as well as online courses through the Learning Center. Since 2019, the school has offered dual enrollment courses in collaboration with Palomar College, allowing juniors and seniors to take college classes during the school day, including options like Chicano Studies.

In August 2020, Orange Glen introduced a new program called Middle College at Orange Glen, a school within a school for dual enrollment. This unique opportunity allows students to take at least one Palomar College class each semester starting in 9th grade. Enrollment is voluntary, and the application process considers students' academic skills, past performance, and potential. Counselors play a pivotal role, meeting with students annually to review academic progress and post-secondary goals and providing seniors with guidance on post-secondary plans.

To support academic success, Orange Glen High School has implemented a robust intervention system. In the last two years, House Leads were added to provide targeted interventions for ninth graders. These supports encompass academic intervention and referral to social workers, family liaisons, and additional school counselors. The intervention team includes the Family Intervention Team (FIT), the Prevention and Diversion (PAD) program, and Safety Outreach for Students (SOS) program.

The Orange Glen High School Counseling Department follows a comprehensive school counseling program aligned with the ASCA National Model. Counselors act as advocates, leaders, collaborators, and system change agents for student success. They address academic, career, and personal/social needs through classroom sessions, small groups, and individual settings. The counseling team actively works to enhance academic success through academic enrichment and intervention programs.

Professional Development

Orange Glen High School (OGHS) and the Escondido Union High School District (EUHSD) are deeply committed to the continuous professional development of their staff. Various training opportunities, including site workshops, staff meeting activities, district-led initiatives, conference attendance, and individual mentoring, are provided. These offerings are meticulously designed based on student and staff needs, incorporating teacher feedback and addressing current educational requirements. The implementation of professional development is actively supported and monitored through Professional Learning Community (PLC) teams, department meetings, PLC lead teacher meetings, all-staff meetings, and the review of surveys and student data in small groups.

In collaboration with EUHSD's Educational Services department, OGHS actively supports staff through the ongoing professional development framework known as the Arc of Learning. This involves close collaboration with site administrators, teacher leaders, and instructional coaches to co-construct studio cycles. These cycles specifically focus on areas such as Social Emotional Learning (SEL), Improvement Science within PLCs, Design Thinking/Equity Protocol, and Deeper Learning via Studio Cycles.

EUHSD places a priority on professional learning and instructional material training essential for enhancing instructional practices. The district has employed highly qualified Content Specialists in critical academic areas such as Math, English Language Development, Humanities, and Science. Significant funding and human resources have been allocated to develop a comprehensive arc of professional learning suitable for all classified, certificated, and management staff. Regular surveys and facilitated listening sessions with staff and leadership from each content area are conducted in monthly subject-area council meetings to ensure ongoing feedback and improvement.

Professional Learning Communities (PLCs) are integral to OGHS, where teachers engage in collective inquiry and action research to improve student learning. These PLCs, organized by content area or course-alike teams, address essential questions related to student learning expectations, assessments, interventions, and enrichment. Teams regularly examine student work samples and data to ensure mastery of skills and standards, with a focus on short-term cycles of inquiry.

Restorative Practices and Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (PBIS) are emphasized through professional development at OGHS. Teachers are trained in creating positive classroom cultures, establishing expectations, implementing restorative responses to behavior, and fostering school-family communication.

Professional Development

For academic rigor, OGHS collaborates with the San Diego County Office of Education (SDCOE) to train staff in developing rigorous tasks for students and examining levels of questions in assignments and assessments. Site administrators and Content Specialists calibrate classroom instruction expectations in alignment with the Hess Cognitive Rigor Matrix.

Job-specific professional development is prioritized, with school counselors engaging in training appropriate to their roles, special education, security, and administrative staff receiving Proact training, and subject-specific training for teachers, such as integrated mathematics, Next Generation Science Standards, and English Language Arts curriculum training.
